Communication materials
for your Point of Sale.

A great opportunity for your Point of Sale.

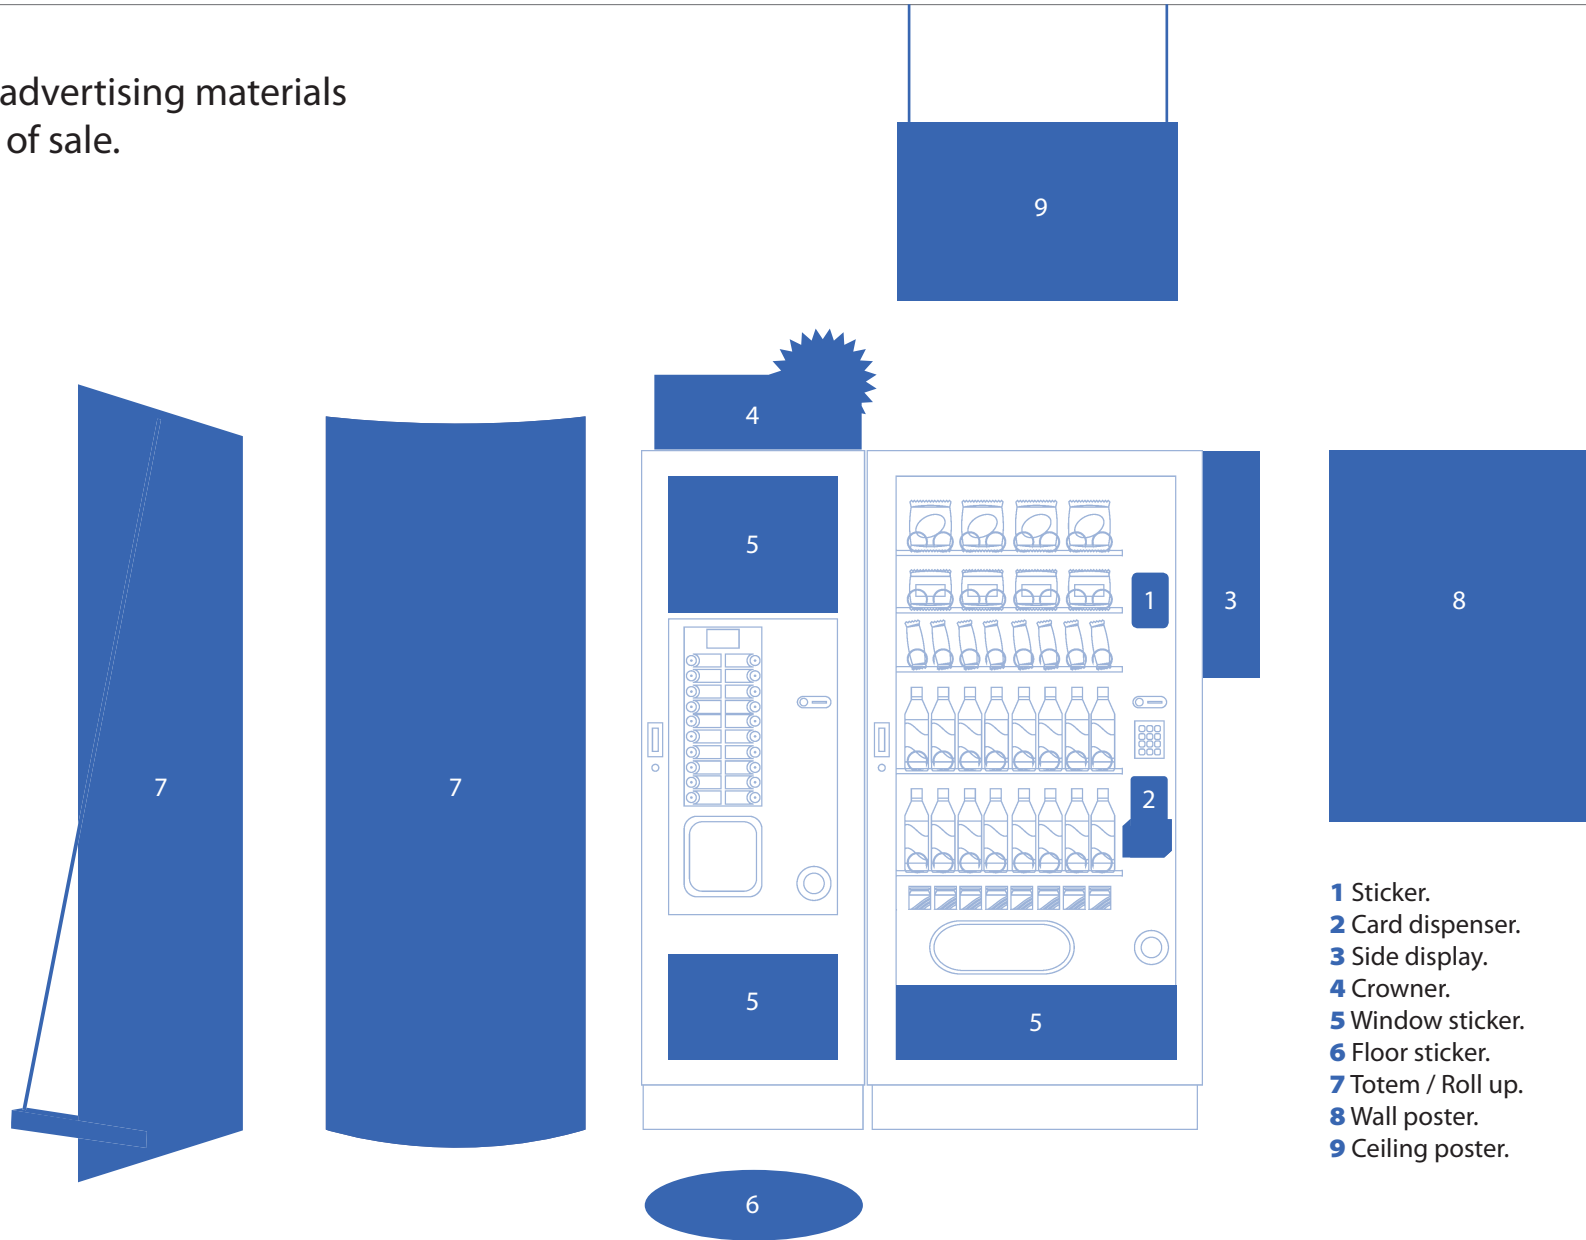

Pay4Vend allows you to get the most out of your vending machines: topping up credit with cards, Apple Pay and PayPal, targeted promotions, user profiling and above all a real-time communication channel with all your customers. To get the most out of Pay4Vend, let everyone know that this payment method is available at your point of sale. In this way, users will be encouraged to download the free app and use it more.

Coges offers you a vast catalog of tools to print and place by the vending machine: from identification to window stickers, from ceiling posters to roll-up banners and much more. If you think you can use a sticker with particular dimensions or something that is not in this catalog, try to contact us and we will do our best to help you.

Each of your locations is different from the others and nobody knows them better than you. Set up the point of sale in the way that seems most effective and let your customers discover the new payment system via smartphone!
